

Level and credit equivalents

The Professional Diploma in UX Design has been credit rated by Glasgow Caledonian University and allocated 40 credits at Level 8 under the Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF).

University for the Common Good

The level indicates the complexity of the content within the course.
The credits indicate the length of time it takes to complete the course.
For more details, please see the SCQF website.

The table below estimates the equivalent levels and credit points for a selection of countries.
Exact equivalents are made at the discretion of individual universities.

If you don't see your country listed or you have any questions, feel free to send us an email.

Region	Framework	Level equivalent	Credits equivalent
Europe	European Qualifications Framework (EQF)	Level 5	20 ECTS credits
England	Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (RQF)	Level 5	40 credits
Scotland	Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF)	Level 8	40 SCQF credits
Wales	Credit and Qualifications Framework of Wales (CQFW)	Level 5	40 credits
Northern Ireland	Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA)	Level 5	40 credits
Ireland	National Qualifications Framework (NQF)	Level 6	20 ECTS credits
USA	United States Network for Education Information (USNEI)	Associate Degree	30 US college credits
Canada	Canada has provincial qualifications frameworks	Advanced Diploma	40 Canadian credits
South Africa	South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA)	Level 6 Diploma	40 NQF credits
Australia	Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)	Level 5 Advanced Diploma	40 AQF credits
New Zealand	New Zealand Qualifications Framework (NZQF)	Level 5 Diploma	40 NZQF credits

UX Design Institute,
Digital Court, Rainsford St,
Dublin 8, Ireland

+353 1 485 3673
hello@uxdesigninstitute.com
www.uxdesigninstitute.com